Joe has been a professional photographer for almost four decades. His work has appeared in many publications and has been featured at several national galleries. He has also completed international documentary photography projects in Pakistan, Turkey, and Cuba. He is the producer/director of the feature documentary film about the U.S. embargo on Cuba, entitled Curtain of Water, which aired on PBS and screened at many universities, film festivals, and organizations, in the U.S. and Europe. He also created numerous short films, including Santeria: Life in the Religion, and a photo book on Santeria in Cuba entitled Babalawo: Father of Mysteries. Joe has led photo trips to Bhutan, Tuscany and Cuba. Joe is currently a photography adjunct at Sussex County Community College in Newton, NJ.

Trip Highlights:

This trip offers a unique opportunity to interact with local artists, photographers and musicians, as well as to visit a variety of locations, ranging from the excitement of Old Havana and Vedado neighborhoods, Cienfuegos, the quaint cobblestone streets of Trinidad, to the beautiful valley of Viñales. Photo opportunities will be surprisingly rich and, whether you are an amateur or a pro, you are guaranteed to be handed great inspiration.

Photo experience is not necessary, but be sure you bring your camera!
