

Nueva Havana (New Haven) to Old Havana

Sustainable Development and Cultural Exchange in Cuba

November 22- 29, 2019

Knowing that arts, education and good environmental stewardship are essential to build a sustainable future for our children and that cultivation of best practices for our future leaders is needed today, Soul de Cuba Cafe's founder, Jesus Puerto, invites you to visit Havana, Cuba this November.

Specially crafted for community leaders of New Haven, let Jesus' counterparts in Havana guide you in exploring Cuba's advancements in building sustainable communities while also immersing yourself in the vibrant Food and Arts Culture of Havana and Jesus' ancestral home town, Guanabacoa!

Our Journey is hosted by the Antonio Núñez Jiménez Foundation for Nature and Humanity and together we will learn about the remarkable expedition the late Dr. Núñez Jiménez led on river through the jungles of the Amazon all the way to Cuba on canoes. This extraordinary scientific endeavor, which was the highlight of Dr. Núñez Jiménez life, greatly influenced his work, and propelled him to become one of the main explorers of the 20th century worldwide. Thirty years after this historic journey, his vision that is possible, through a "Culture of Nature, to achieve harmony between society and its environment," has acquired strength and validity. We will visit the Hatuey Canoe museum where one of the vessels used in this journey is housed and there, experts will provide insights into Dr. Núñez Jiménez's vast scientific accomplishments and his personal life.

Additional highlights of the program includes in-depth tour of historic Guanabacoa, the once sacred homeland of native Cuban Indians, to Finca Marta farm which provides many local restaurants and families fresh, organic produce and honey, and we will have a presentation by Afro-Cuban filmmaker Gloria Rolando.

The tour will also include tobacco farm and rum factory visits to allow you to connect with local people in their place of work and receive insight into not just the production processes of these products but also learn about workplace culture in Cuba. This tour is specially designed to allow you to connect and engage with your soon to be friends and family in Guanabacoa and Havana as you will be able to dine and jazz through the evenings with them or just relax to a tranquil Cuban bolero at a bar nearby the centrally located hotel.

Proceeds will go to the Cubanakoa Foundation which seeks to support the sustainable revitalization of Guanabacoa, creating jobs and projects in areas including cultural preservation, organic farming, workforce development training and leadership and peace education and the Antonio Núñez Jiménez Foundation for Nature and Humanity.

Encircled by mountains and interspersed with dramatic rocky outcrops, traditional agricultural techniques, particularly of tobacco, are still practiced here. The quality of this cultural landscape is enhanced by the vernacular architecture of its farms and villages where a rich multiethnic society survives, illustrating the cultural development of the islands of the Caribbean and Cuba. In the late morning, we enjoy a guided walking tour through the farms in Vinales Valley. We'll meet with different farmers, including tobacco farmers, and their families to learn about Cuban agriculture and small scale farming. Following the tour, we'll have lunch in the town of Vinales. In the afternoon, we'll have a briefing with the town historian in Vinales to learn about rural development in this beautiful town, its history, and how they are trying to keep tourism small and community based. We return to Havana after our visit in Vinales. You're free to explore dinner options and evening activities on your own this evening.

Thursday November 28

(B, L,D)

9:00AM Enjoy an exchange with an organic urban farm in Alamar, on the outskirts of Havana and exchange with local gardeners. At the Organopónico Vivero Alamar we will engage with one of Havana's largest and most successful urban garden, a Unidad Básica de Producción Cooperativa (Basic Unit of Cooperative Production). Covering 11 hectares in Alamar, a residential suburb, the allotment's rows of vegetables are overshadowed by grey Soviet-style blocks of flats. Though small, the garden (really more of an urban farm) is incredibly productive. As well as fresh vegetables, fruits, ornamental plants, seedlings, timber and medicinal and spiritual plants, the cooperative also produces dried herbs, condiments, garlic paste, tomato sauce and pickles; vermicompost, compost and substrates; goat and rabbit meat and mycorrhizal fungi. The Organopónico also welcomes tourists and holds workshops and courses in organic agriculture. Products are sold to local restaurants and directly to community members from the farm shop. We will have lunch with the community of farmers.

Lunch Ajiaco Paladar in Cojimar.

2:30 PM Enjoy free time to enjoy the streets of Havana, walk the Malecon, or souvenir shop at the San Jose Almecenes Artisan faire.

6:00 PM Depart for our Farewell Dinner at El Divino, a social enterprise on a lovely garden.
