

Understanding Race in America
with Dr. Ricky Fishman
May 14 -21, 2022

Saturday, May 14 th (D)

Day flights to Birmingham and please taxi or uber to our hotel.

4:00pm Hotel check in is available at 4 pm.

5:30pm Orientation Meet and Greet.

7:00pm Welcome Dinner .

(Overnight in Birmingham, AL)

Sunday, May 15th Understanding the South (B, L)

8:00am Breakfast

9:30am Visit to a plantation to understand the history of the South.

12:30 pm Lunch

2:30 pm Meeting with a representative of the Daughters of the Confederacy
we will understand genealogical “pride” and identity

Or if possible a representative of Identity Evropa

4:00pm <https://jazzhall.com> Celebrate the history and culture of Jazz.

Eve Tonight we will have free to explore local dining and music.

(Overnight in Birmingham, AL)

Monday May 16th -

(B, L)

8:00am Breakfast

9:00am Guided historical tour through the Birmingham Civil Rights Heritage Trail which winds through downtown area and marks significant locations along the Civil Rights march routes.

12:30 pm Lunch www.jimnnicks.com

2:30pm Visit to the Birmingham Civil Rights National Monument
1510 5th Ave N, Birmingham, AL 35203 (404) 277-5218
NO guide needed Designation...walk through park and church

3:00pm Guided visit the Birmingham Civil Rights Institute (BCRI)
520 16th Street North, Birmingham, AL 35203 Staci McCloud smccloud@bcri.org

5:00pm Return to hotel to rest

7:30pm Time free for Dinner

(Overnight in Birmingham, AL)

Tuesday, May 17th - Excursion to Selma

(B, L)

8:00am Breakfast

8:30am Check out of hotel and depart for Selma

9-10:00 Visit to the 16th Street Baptist Church

12:00 am Meeting at the Voting Rights Trail Interpretive Center

1:00pm Lunch and meet our guide Joanne Bland the Selma Interpretive Center (2 Broad Street) for an interactive tour of Selma.

5 :00pm Leave for Montgomery 45 min drive on the Selma-to-Montgomery Trail.

6:00pm Drop off and check -in at the Double Tree Montgomery Hotel.

7:30 pm Free time for dinner and evening processing circle
(Overnight in Montgomery, AL)

Wednesday, May 18th (B, L)

8:00am Breakfast

9:00am Visit to the Dexter Parsonage memorial where Dr. Martin Luther King Jr lived from 1954-1959.

11:00am Freedom Riders Museum

12:30pm Lunch at D Road Café

2:00 pm Visit the Rosa Parks Museum

3:45 pm Bus pick up at Rosa Parks Museum.

4:00pm Exchange with the Southern Poverty Law Center

5:30 pm Pick up and Return to hotel

7:30pm Evening free time for Dinner

(Overnight in Montgomery, AL)

Thursday, May 19th (B, L)

8:00am Breakfast

9:00am Depart for EJI and Meeting with Staff.

11:45 Walk to lunch

12:00 Walk for Lunch- Central Restaraunt

1:15pm Pick up bus at Central

1:30-3:00pm - Visit to Equal Justice Initiative & Legacy Museum

3:30-5:00 pm – Peace & Justice Memorial Park

5:00pm Bus Pick up and drop off at hotel

Eve Free evening for dinner and personal exploration

(Overnight in Montgomery, AL)

Friday , May 20th (B, L)

8:00am Breakfast

9:00am Powerful presentations by on Life after Hate to understand how to shift from white nationalism.

12:30 pm Lunch at hotel

2:00pm Visit to Communities on the Rise to learn about their work and we will have a donation to support http://communityontherise.com/?fbclid=IwAR2mmMb5IU1UpEVhUkF1Pl5QNsC8L5ET9_3GYdmoxzCIPntQrtzyXKaYZEk

4:00pm Enjoy shopping and supporting local artists. <https://sojournsfairtrade.com/collections/birmingham>

7:00pm Farewell Dinner and Wrap up Circle

(Overnight in Montgomery, AL)

Saturday, May 21st (B)

8:00am Breakfast

Check out of hotel and flights

This Journey is powered by ...  AltruVistas